

Analogue Tools in a Digital World: Resources

Flipchart Goods

- ☆ 90gsm bleedproof paper. The one I use is: <https://viz-pro.co.uk/product/a1-flipchart-easel-paper-2/> It has a nice 'whiteness' to it though is a little shiny so watch out for your light source.
- ☆ Table top flipchart paper:

- N.B. This is good for displays though difficult to draw on
- ☆ Flipchart stands: One with wheels (this is the one I have, with standard legs instead of wheels):

It is a whiteboard too! Ask me to show you.
- ☆ Desk Riser: <https://flexispot.co.uk/desk/converters/alcoveriser-standing-desk-converters-m7.html> (This is the one I have)
This one is from Costco: <https://www.costco.co.uk/Furniture-Home/Home-Office-Furniture/Desks/Seville-Classics-Airlift-Pro-Pneumatic-Sit-to-Stand-Desk-Riser/p/329204>
- ☆ Webcam: Anything from the Logitech brand is good. Mine is Logitech C922 Pro https://www.logitech.com/en-gb/products/webcams/c922-pro-stream-webcam.960-001088.html?gclid=Cj0KCQjwvr6EBhDOARIsAPpqUPEXFeiVoP1-yJXIWhPW1K3Sv6_wxWKAZWDeSaDzyo1dCIB5XgJ-8laAtVdEALw_wcB
 - Logi Capture: free software for zooming in etc.
